

Celebrating School Leadership (CSL) 2019-20

Celebrating School Leadership (CSL)- The annual feature of National Centre for School Leadership (NCSL) at NIEPA seeks to recognise Government and Government Aided schools that have shown consistent improvement through exemplary leadership practices

It seeks to honour schools that

- Bring vibrancy, joy, curiosity, hope and spread smiles
- Nurture collective dreams and aspirations of children, parents and society
- Are led by an outstanding academic leader
- Create spaces for children to think and design their own learning pathways
- Motivate, inspire and develop teachers as leaders in the school and beyond
- Foster ownership of community and cohesiveness with stakeholders within and outside school
- Inculcate values to develop children as responsible citizens of the country

NCSL-NIEPA requests submissions from School Heads/Principals of Government and Government Aided schools (primary to senior secondary) to submit a Case Study (2500-3000 words with photographs) OR a Video Documentary (not both)

For further details on the format of the case studies and video documentary click on our website:
